

College student data

Check out these fast facts on college education in the US.

44%

of students change their major at least once

35%

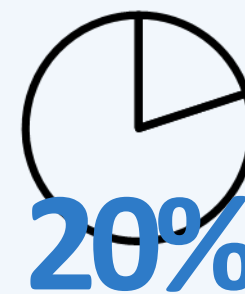

work part-time
while attending school

Of graduates earn
more income.

Of students receive
financial aid.

Of students take online classes.

The top three most popular undergraduate majors in the US are business, health professions, and social sciences.

5,000

The US has over 5,000
colleges and universities

260%

The cost of tuition has risen
260% in the past 40 years

Most high school graduates in the US pursue higher education. 1 in 3 students will change schools at some point in their educational career.